Just A Poem

Masochistic Maiden

Deep in the dark, silent forest
The Lord and the Lady and me,
Walk in reverent wonder
At the mystery of beauty we see.
Misty clouds and moonbeams
Play a silent symphony,
Filled with awe and peace
that They should walk with me.

Deep in the dark, silent forest
Where first they came to me,
The Lord of the Woods, the Green Man,
And the Lady in majesty.
There 'neath the moon I adore them with the beauty of nature around.
The Athame in blue white splendor then draws the circle round.

Deep in the dark, silent forest
The Lord and the Lady and me
Create a space of wonder
Just large enough for three.
Earth and Air, Fire and Water
Thrice the circle drawn.
Enchanted space of ritual
until the morning dawn.

Deep in the dark, silent forest
The Lord and the Lady and me,
At the end of the long nights ritual
Are content and happy we three.
We watch the glow of the embers
As the heat of the fire dies low.
A few moments of meditation and then it's time to go.

Deep in the dark, silent forest
Here by the wide open sea,
The Lord and the Lady go walking,
The Lord, the Lady and me.
Here in the dark silent forest
I've learned a great mystery.
They are each a part of the other,
And each a great part of me.
